RESEARCH & OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Since 2006 Households, Health, & Community-Based Natural Resource Management in Zambia
(Funding: J. William Fulbright Grant & Procter & Gamble Fellowship)
Lead Investigator
Continuing ethnographic study of impact of community-based natural resource management on health and development of residents on border of Zambia's North Luangwa National Park; analysis links processes of globally driven community development with local changes in livelihoods, ideas of "the good life," and health and welfare.
- Since 2009 Regaining a Sense of Place: Environment, Community, & Treatment (ReSPECT) for Addiction Study (Funding: Urban Health Institute & W.K. Kellogg Foundation)
Lead Investigator
Community-based participatory research project investigating social, economic, and political dynamics governing provision of drug treatment services in Baltimore. Critical analysis of spaces in which drug sales, use, and treatment take place; emphasis on lived experiences of current residents and the historical trajectories of their areas' built and social environments.
- 2009 – 2011 Community Aging in Place: Advancing Better Living for Elders (CAPABLE) Study
(Funding: John A. Hartford Foundation)
Lead Qualitative Researcher (Sarah Szanton, Principal Investigator)
Study of how lower-income older adults' trajectories across shifting built and social environments create disparate outcomes in "aging-in-place" in Baltimore, with focus on experiences of class, race, segregation, and discrimination.
- 2007 – 2010 Male Adolescent Reproductive & Comprehensive Health (MARCH) Study
(Funding: National Institutes of Health)
Researcher (Arik Marcell, Principal Investigator)
Ethnographic research investigating adolescent males' attitudes toward, access of, and experiences with reproductive and primary health care services in Baltimore.
- 2006 – 2007 Phoebe R. Berman Bioethics Institute Global Pandemic Influenza Study
(Funding: Rockefeller Foundation)
Consultant (Ruth Faden, Principal Investigator)
Critical discourse analysis of 37 international pandemic influenza preparedness plans, using social justice as a lens to determine ramifications for populations disadvantaged status quo ante.
- 2005 Trusted Partner Interpersonal Communication Project (IPC), PSI/AIDSMark
(Funding: United States Agency for International Development)
Consultant
Analysis of young people's intimate relationships, social networks, and communication about HIV/AIDS in Nairobi, Kenya, with focus on economic, romantic, and sexual negotiations.
- 2004 Abidjan-Lagos Corridor HIV/AIDS Project, JHU Center for Communication Programs
(Funding: World Bank)
Consultant
Review and analysis of epidemiologic, geographic, and social and behavioral determinants of HIV/AIDS transmission in the Abidjan-Lagos Corridor, through lens of human geography.
- 2001 – 2003 United States Peace Corps Community Action for Health Programme
Health Extension Agent: Chipangali, Zambia
Facilitated community-based health programs in rural southern Africa. Coordinated government and non-governmental organizations at village, district, and provincial levels.
